FINDING	There being a finding/verdict of <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of: Possession of Child Pornography in violation of 18 USC 2252(a) (5) (B) as charged in Single-Count Information.
----------------	--

JUDGMENT AND PROB/ COMM ORDER	The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:
--------------------------------------	--

Seventy-Eight Months (78) on the Single-Count Information. This term consists of 78 months on the Single-Count Information.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $17,500, which shall bear interest as provided by law.

The fine shall be paid, and to the extent he is capable of doing so, immediately, and the unpaid portion shall be part of his obligation to complete under the provisions of supervised release.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release until the defendant reaches the age of 70. This term consists of twenty-five years on the Single-Count Information under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance, but there will not be a drug testing regimen;

3. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and the fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to that agreement;
4. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
5. The defendant shall use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs), as approved by the Probation Officer. Computers and computer related devices include but are not limited to personal computers, personal data assistance, PDA's, internet appliances, electronic games and cellular telephones as well as their peripheral equipment that can be accessed or can be modified to access the internet, electronic bulletin boards, computers or other similar media;
6. All computers, electronic communications or data storage devices or media to which the defendant has access in his residence or workplace, shall be subject to search and seizure for the purpose of search. The defendant shall not add, remove, upgrade, update, reinstall, repair, or otherwise modify the computers, electronic communications or data storage devices or media, nor shall he hide or encrypt files or data without prior approval of the Probation Officer. Further, the defendant shall provide all billing records including but not limited to telephone, cable, internet, and satellite as requested by the probation officer;
7. The defendant shall use computers/devices only for lawful type purposes, and not for any purpose specifically prohibited elsewhere in the terms of supervised release;
8. The defendant shall participate in psychological/psychiatric counseling and/or a sex offender treatment program, which may include inpatient treatment as approved and directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions, of such program including submission to risk assessment evaluation(s), and physiological testings including able testing;
9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating his psychological or psychiatric disorders to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the probation officer;
10. The defendant shall register as a sex offender, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where he resided, where he is an employee, and where he is a student. When registering for the first time, the defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction in which the conviction occurred, meaning this district and this county if that other jurisdiction where he is residing is different. The defendant shall provide proof of registration to the probation officer within three days of release from imprisonment;
11. The defendant shall not possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video game, depicting and/or describing child pornography, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2). Excluded from that restriction would be statutes that deal with sexually explicit conduct or information about prosecutions and sentences for such sexually explicit conduct;
12. The defendant shall not possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games, depicting and/or describing child pornography, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8);
13. The defendant shall not own, use or have access to the services of any commercial mail-receiving agency, nor shall he open or maintain a post office box, without the prior approval of the Probation Officer;

14. The defendant shall not frequent, or loiter, within 100 feet of schools, school yards, parks, public swimming pools, playgrounds, youth centers, video arcade facilities, or other places primarily used by persons under the age of 18;
15. The defendant shall not associate or have verbal, written, telephonic, or electronic communication with any person under the age of 18, except: a) in the presence of the parent or legal guardian of said minor; and b) on the condition that the defendant notify the parent or legal guardian of his conviction in this case. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18 with whom he must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors and the like;
16. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer and/or be employed in any capacity by a business or organization that causes him regularly contact persons under the age of 18 unless it is to provide the services that he is entitled to deal with in order to receive them.
17. The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, and/or be employed in any capacity by a business whose principal product is the production and/or selling of material depicting and/or describing "sexually explicit conduct," as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2);
18. The defendant's employment shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in employment must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall submit the name and address of the proposed employer to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled change;
19. The defendant shall not reside within direct view of school yards, parks, public swimming pools, playgrounds, youth centers, video arcade facilities, or other places primarily used by persons under the age of 18. The defendant's residence shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in residence must be preapproved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall submit the address of the proposed residence to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled move.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Services), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon on April 2, 2008. In the absence of such designation, he shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshall located at:

Royal Federal Building
255 East Temple Street
Los Angeles, California 90012

To the extent defendant retained any rights to appeal, defendant advised to file a notice of appeal within 10 days.

Bond exonerated upon surrender.

Court further recommends that the defendant be incarcerated in the Federal Correctional Facility in Yankton, South Dakota.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

U. S. District Judge/Magistrate Judge

It is ordered that the Clerk deliver a copy of this Judgment and Probation/Commitment Order to the U.S. Marshal or other qualified officer.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below).

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

While the defendant is on probation or supervised release pursuant to this judgment:

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime;
2. the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the written permission of the court or probation officer;
3. the defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
4. the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
5. the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
6. the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
7. the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment;
8. the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
9. the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed or administered;
10. the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
11. the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
12. the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
13. the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
14. as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to conform the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
15. the defendant shall, upon release from any period of custody, report to the probation officer within 72 hours;
16. and, for felony cases only: not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

The defendant will also comply with the following special conditions pursuant to General Order 01-05 (set forth below).

STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The defendant shall pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution, however, are not applicable for offenses completed prior to April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant shall pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. §3613.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. §3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution-pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence:
 - Private victims (individual and corporate),
 - Providers of compensation to private victims,
 - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns or a signed release authorizing their disclosure and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income and expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant shall not apply for any loan or open any line of credit without prior approval of the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into this account, which shall be used for payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request.

The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the Probation Officer until all financial obligations imposed by the Court have been satisfied in full.

These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this judgment.
